

Exploring Georgia

This class, targeting the younger students, will be an interactive virtual exploration of Georgia, interweaving elements of geography and natural studies of Georgia's flora and fauna, along with studies in history and cultural traditions.

During this class children will develop creativity and interest in Georgian Language as our talented instructor, Ekaterina, created a unique methodology based on the combination of various Georgian Language books and materials adapted for bilingual kids, appropriate for their ages and skills.